

Professional Curtain making services

Paul Fisher and his team have 25 years of experience providing highest quality curtain making to the trade.

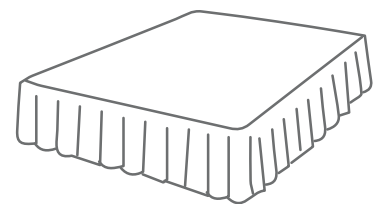

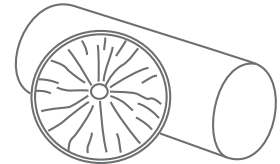

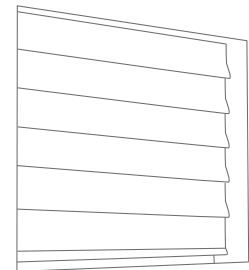

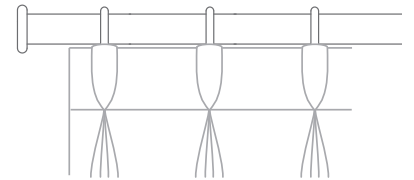

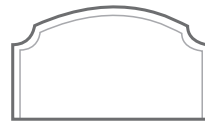

Operating from large capacity premises in Norfolk, Paul Fisher has the answer for projects large and small, national and local, across a range of budget levels.

The true specialism of the company is the hand-sewing of curtains and blinds to exacting specifications.

Paul Fisher offers

- An experienced team of highly skilled hand sewing specialists.
- Excellent machine sewing capabilities for tighter budget projects.
- Make up using customer's own fabric, or fabric can be supplied on request.
- Fast turnaround as standard and rush projects accommodated.
- A full measure and install service for larger projects.

With core skills in curtain and blind-making, the company also has expertise in upholstery and other soft furnishings. This gives a single source solution for hotel contracts requiring curtains, headboards and soft accessories.
